MOTTO

“It's not going to be easy, I said to myself. and for every struggle I'm dealing with, I made a promise to myself that it'll only push me kinder, softer, and better. I will let the world make me sad, and sorrowful, and cry, but I won't let it harden my heart, or take away my soul from what it always known.”

-Unknown

“Do they not see the birds controlled in the atmosphere of the sky? none holds them up except Allah. Indeed in that are signs for a people who believe. ”

Surah An-Nahl [16:79]

ARRANGED MARRIED REFLECTED IN THE NOTEBOOK
NOVEL BY NICHOLAS SPARKS(1996) :
A Sociological Approach

ABSTRACT

In this study, The researcher writes how Arranged Married can be reflected in the novel The Notebook by Nicholas Sparks. This study uses the Sociological Approach as a method to analyze the issues. Every analysis that has been carried out has been obtained through many sources, especially from direct sources obtained through conversations and direct content quoted from the novel. Data sources have also been researched and found based on previous theories that previously conducted research that was quite similar and with the same issue.

The result of the study shows Social class which is the main factor of Arranged Married can occur The social class itself is a group and layers of society that gather into a group based on position, profession, and family title in a certain environment. Every part of the upper social class or aristocrats is not allowed to marry the middle or lower class social groups as if this rule had been created long ago.

Keywords: Sociological, Social Class, Arranged Married.
